SUPPORT DUBLIN RESTAURANTS WITH #DUBLINEATS Restaurants providing to-go and delivery services during Shelter-in-Place Order

DUBLIN, Calif., March 20, 2020 – In order to assist and promote Dublin restaurants during the COVID-19 (coronavirus) pandemic, the City of Dublin has launched #DublinEats, a social media campaign supporting local restaurants which are offering to-go and delivery services during the Shelter-In-Place Order.

Local restaurants operate on tight margins on an everyday basis, let alone during an ever-evolving pandemic like COVID-19. Supporting our local eateries during this time is important to the livelihood of our restaurant owners and their employees, even it's just to grab an appetizer or treat for takeout.

The launch of #DublinEats helps to promote those local restaurants that are prepared to serve customers during the Shelter-In-Place Order, while still adhering to the social distancing guidelines.

Many Dublin restaurants offer online ordering through their website or other platform, while also offering delivery services such as Grubhub, DoorDash, and UberEats. For a list of open restaurants and the different options available, please visit the City's website at www.dublin.ca.gov/dublineats. This list will be updated as time permits. With our current situation continuing to evolve, residents are encouraged to call the restaurant directly to confirm services are still available.
