Take Part in the City of Dublin's 7th Annual Creek Cleanup Day

Saturday, September 9, 2017

DUBLIN, Calif., August 2, 2017 – The City of Dublin is seeking volunteers for participation in the City of Dublin's 7th Annual Creek Cleanup Day. The event will take place on Saturday, September 9, 9:00 a.m. - noon. Volunteers will help pick up trash from Alamo Creek, Dublin Creek, South San Ramon Creek, and Tassajara Creek. Since 1985, over 1,300,000 Californians have participated in removing over 21 million pounds of trash and recyclables from waterways, lakes, and beaches throughout the State.

Participants in Dublin's event will meet near the basketball courts at Emerald Glen Park at 9:00 a.m. for instructions and a light breakfast before making their way over to the creeks. Children under the age of 15 must be accompanied by an adult. Volunteers will leave to go to their assigned creek by 9:30 a.m. and return to Emerald Glen Park at noon for a light pizza lunch.

Registration for the event is required, and all participants must complete a waiver. For a list of what to bring and how to register, please visit www.dublin.ca.gov/993/Creek-Cleanup-Day.
