PHONE: (925) 833-6626
SUBJECT: DUBLIN POLICE ARREST TWO ROBBERY SUSPECTS

On Saturday, May 30, 2018, a victim had a laptop computer forcefully stolen while he sat inside the Starbucks located in the Hacienda Crossings Shopping Center (4930 Dublin Boulevard). The same type of theft occurred again on June 6, 2018 and June 8, 2018 at Starbucks locations in Hacienda Crossings and the Persimmon Place Shopping Center (5138 Dublin Boulevard).

With assistance from witnesses and video surveillance, investigators were able to identify 18-year-old Adam Uzelac and 18-year-old Khan Roadwall as the subjects responsible for the robberies. On Friday, June 15, 2018, both Uzelac and Roadwall were located at their residences and placed under arrest. Search warrants were executed at both residences, where additional evidence, including one of the stolen laptops, was located.

On Monday, June 18, 2018, the Alameda County District Attorney's Office reviewed this investigation and charged both Uzelac and Roadwall with numerous felony counts of robbery and grand theft.

Dublin Police would like to thank the community for providing eyewitness accounts, without which these crimes may have never been solved.
