Small Business Week

National Small Business Week is coming up on May 5 to 11, 2019 and the Dublin City Council will consider to pass a Proclamation for Small Business Week acknowledging the contributions to our community by local entrepreneurs and small business owners.

Throughout the year, the City of Dublin partners with the Dublin Chamber of Commerce and other organizations to connect small businesses with vital resources, celebrate small businesses and promote residents to shop locally.

Small business owners can download free customizable and ready-made marketing materials from the Shop Small Studio, sponsored by American Express. You can download new Shop Small marketing materials in English and Spanish.

HAPPY SMALL BUSINESS WEEK

Congratulations Innovation Tri-Valley #GameChangers

The Innovation Tri-Valley Leadership Group recently celebrated the 4th annual #GameChangers Awards and recognized new innovation stars and legacy leaders from the Tri-Valley.

Congratulations to two Dublin businesses, Amber Solutions and Saba Software, for receiving #GameChangers Awards.

For more information about the awards program, visit Innovation Tri-Valley's website.

State of the City Address

City of Dublin Mayor David Haubert will present the annual State of the City Address on Wednesday, April 17 from 11:30 am to 1:30 pm at the Shannon Community Center (11600 Shannon Ave., Dublin). Get Help with ADA Compliance

In order to help business and property owners meet the American Disabilities Act (ADA) requirements and ensure their facilities are accessible to individuals with disabilities, you can hire a State-Certified Access Specialist (CASp) to help determine compliance. These specialists have been help determine compliance. These specialists have been tested on their knowledge of state and federal accessibility standards.

A CAsp professional can inspect your business or property and:

- determine the accessibility standards to apply based on the facility;
- provide an action plan for the necessary changes; and
- offer legal benefits that may reduce financial liability in a lawsuit.

Having your business or property reviewed by a CAsp shows that you care about ensuring equal access for all customers, and also demonstrates your intent to follow the law.

To find a local CAsp professional, visit the State Department of General Services website.

Also, this ADA Primer for Small Business includes helpful information about Standards for Accessible Design.

Consider Serving on the Tri-Valley Inclusion Business Advisory Council

The Tri-Valley Inclusion Business Advisory Council (BAC) fosters relationships among Tri-Valley business leaders to promote employment of individuals with intellectual and development disabilities. The BAC is looking for local business leaders to serve on the Council who would like to make a difference in the Tri-Valley by increasing employment outcomes and advocating for employment for adults with disabilities.

If you are interested in learning more or joining the BAC, please contact Jeremy Hesson at 925-737-5604.
