

Birdwatch, Johanna Poethig, 2002

“Birdwatch” is one of Dublin’s most colorful pieces stretching 158’ long with a 4’ tall scrub jay that holds the place of honor at the center of this mural, celebrating California birds. This beautiful tile wall is located at Ted Fairfield Park. Ms. Poethig is on the art faculty at California State University, Monterey Bay. Her large-scale public projects include works at the U.S. Embassy in Tbilisi, Georgia; El Taller Cultural in Santiago, Cuba; and the Loop Tattoo in Chicago. The piece was a gift from the Dublin Fine Arts Foundation.
