

Gail, Katherine Keefer, 1994

Located in the lobby entrance of Dublin's Civic Center, "Gail" was a gift from the Dublin Fine Arts Foundation. She is a ceramic female figure reading a book while seated on a wooden bench. She was fired with matte and glossy colored glazes, while her bench was fabricated in teak wood with a clear finish. The artist, Katherine Keefer is a nationally renowned sculptor who has created a number of works in the Bay Area, including "Aaron and Dylan", which can also be found at the Civic Center. Keefer has collaborated with her husband, Steve Gillman on numerous large scale public artworks. They have teamed up to create public art for the cities of San Jose, Santa Cruz, San Francisco and the states of Oregon and Washington.
