COVID-19 RESOURCES FOR SMALL BUSINESSES

—FREE WEBINAR—

Tuesday, July 14, 10:30-11:30 a.m.

EIDL Advance Program Ended

On July 11, 2020, the Small Business Administration (SBA)

announced the conclusion of the Economic Injury Disaster Loan (EIDL) Advance program. Having allocated the full $20 billion that was appropriated by Congress for the Advance program, SBA will discontinue making EIDL Advances to new applicants. (By law, the SBA is not permitted to issue new EIDL Advances once all program funding has been obligated.)

EIDL loan applications are still being processed and the EIDL program continues to have funds available. Apply for an EIDL on the SBA website.

Business Survey: COVID Impact and Recovery

The SBA and the National Institute of Standards and Technology have launched a national online survey to learn:

U.S. Small Business Administration

- How businesses across America are adapting to the circumstances,
- How this may or may not be connected to broader weather-related stressors your business may face, and
- Practices you have taken that have helped reduce the impact of COVID-19.

All businesses are encouraged to take the online survey.
