A police officer pulls over a car

A police officer sees a car pattering along at 22 miles per hour. He thinks to himself: “This driver is just as dangerous as a speeder!” So he turns on his lights and pulls the driver over.

Approaching the car, he notices that there are four old ladies inside — the three passengers are wide eyed and white as ghosts.

The driver, obviously confused, says to him: “Officer, I don’t understand, I was doing exactly the speed limit! What seems to be the problem?”

The officer replies: “Ma’am, you weren’t speeding, but you should know that driving much slower than the speed limit can also be a danger to other drivers.”

“Slower than the speed limit? No sir, I was doing the speed limit exactly. Twenty-two miles an hour!” The old woman says, pointing to a sign next to the road.

The officer, trying to contain a chuckle explains to her that the sign was the highway number, not the speed limit. A bit embarrassed, the woman grins and thanks the officer for pointing out her error.

“But before I let you go, ma’am, I have to ask, Is everyone in this car okay? Your passengers seem awfully shaken and they haven’t muttered a single peep this whole time,” the officer asks.

“Oh, they’ll be all right in a minute officer. We just got off highway 140.”
