DUBLIN BUSINESS BRIEF

October 13, 2020 Special Notice

Alameda County Moves Into Less-Restrictive Orange Tier, Allowing for Additional Activities

With the State of California's announcement today that Alameda County has moved into the Orange Tier of its "Blueprint for a Safer Economy," the County will allow for additional activities to resume, with limited capacities, beginning October 26.

Beginning Monday, October 26, the County will allow:

- Indoor dining up to 25% capacity or less than 100 people, whichever is less
- Indoor worship services up to 25% capacity or less than 100 people, whichever is less
- Indoor theaters up to 25% capacity or less than 100 people, whichever is less
- Expansion of indoor retail and malls at up to 50% capacity and permitting limited food courts

The County also warns that if they see a spike in COVID-19 cases and a rise in hospitalizations, they may again place restrictions on activities. Please visit Alameda County Public Health Department's (ACPHD) Shelter in Place webpage for information on the current local Health Order and a list of activities that are currently open and not open in Alameda County.

For County guidance documents and resources to support safe opening, visit ACPHD's Reopening & Recovery webpage.
