Free Legal Counseling for Businesses

Santa Clara Law School (SCLS) is pleased to host FREE legal advising clinics for entrepreneurs and small business owners that otherwise lack access to affordable legal counsel. Experienced licensed attorneys assisted by law student volunteers provide free legal counseling on employment law, tax law and small business matters such as:

- Founders' Agreements
- Entity Choice (Sole Proprietorship, LLC, Corporation, etc.)
- Licensing and Other Regulations

- Financing
- Employment Matters
- Independent Contractor versus Employee Classification
- Equity Compensation
- Restricted Stock & Shareholders' Agreements
- Taxation
- Non-Disclosure Agreements
- Intellectual Property Protection (Trademarks, Copyrights, Patents, etc.)
- Privacy Policies
- Website Terms of Use
- Commercial Lease Agreements
- Customer and Vendor Contracts
- Licensing Agreements

All clinic sessions this semester will be held via remote video conferencing. Advising hours are by appointment on Saturdays 2/13, 3/13 and 4/10.

For more information and to apply for an appointment, visit the SCLS website.
