

Are you Eligible for an ABC Renewal Fee Waiver?

The California Department of Beverage Control reminds businesses that restaurants, bars, and other specified licensees with on-sale privileges are eligible for fee waivers of licenses with expiration dates between March 1, 2021, and February 28, 2023.

Use the three-step Verify Eligibility tool to verify eligibility for the renewal fee waiver and to submit your fee waiver.

1. Search by license number after receiving your renewal notice in the mail.
2. Verify license type fee waiver eligibility and identify your remaining balance due, if any.
3. Submit your renewal fee waiver either online if you have no balance due, or by mail with your payment.

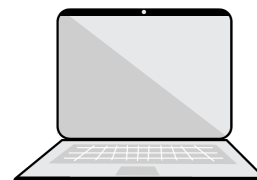

For more information or to submit a fee waiver, visit abc.ca.gov.

Microbusiness & Non-Profit Grant Deadline Extended to October 19, 2022

The deadline for the $2,500 grant for microbusinesses and non-profits has been extended to October 19, 2022. The grant application period began May 17, 2022.

The grant program, funded by the California Office of the Small Business Advocate (CalOSBA) and administered by the Chabot Las Positas Community College District (CLPCCD), is available for microbusinesses and non-profits in the counties of Alameda, Amador, Contra Costa, and El Dorado.

The program provides grants of $2,500 to microbusinesses (businesses earning less than $50,000/year with less than five employees) that were in operation in 2019, are still in operation, and were impacted by the pandemic.

More information regarding additional eligibility requirements and how to apply can be found online.
