DUBLIN DIGEST

A WEEKLY UPDATE FROM THE CITY OF DUBLIN

VOL. 2 | ISSUE 5 | JANUARY 31, 2025

REGISTER FOR THE 2025 DUBLIN POLICE SERVICES CITIZENS ACADEMY

Enrollment Opens February 3 for This 10-Week Community Program

Dublin residents and employees can soon gain firsthand insight into local law enforcement through the 2025 Dublin Police Services Citizen Academy. Registration opens on February 3 at 10:00 a.m. The 10-week program runs each Wednesday from 5:00 to 8:00 p.m., beginning March 26, and culminates in a graduation ceremony on May 28. Participants must be at least 18 years old and either live or work in Dublin. The Citizens Academy offers a unique opportunity to learn about law enforcement operations, strengthen community-police relationships, and encourage public involvement in community policing efforts.

Space is limited to the first 20 applicants. For more details and to apply, visit www.dublin.ca.gov/citizensacademy.

UPCOMING DUBLIN CITY COUNCIL MEETING AGENDA

The Dublin City Council will meet on Tuesday, February 4, at 7:00 p.m., in the Dublin City Council Chamber. View the Meeting Agenda.

STAY PREPARED FOR HEAVY RAINS

Flood Watch Through February 2 for Alameda County, including Dublin

The National Weather Service has issued a Flood Watch through February 2 for Alameda County, including Dublin. Heavy rains may cause flooding – stay prepared and follow storm safety guidelines.

Storm Safety Tips:

- Avoid driving if possible; never drive through standing water.
- Keep your car fueled and phone charged.
- Check emergency supplies (food, water, flashlight, batteries, first aid kit).
- Clear debris from storm drains and secure outdoor items.
- Keep garbage cans and cars at least one foot from the curb.

Maintenance crews will be clearing storm drains and removing fallen trees. The sandbag station at the City of Dublin Corporation Yard located at 5709 Scarlett Court is open and free sandbags are available for Dublin residents and businesses, with a limit of 10 bags per household or business.

REMINDER: JOIN DUBLIN'S EMERGENCY PREPAREDNESS CLASSES

Learn Essential Skills to Keep Your Family Safe

The City of Dublin, in partnership with Alameda County Fire Department, invites Dublin residents to attend two free Emergency Preparedness classes designed to help you and your family stay safe in times of disaster. Learn about resources available and the simple steps you can take now to be prepared.

Discussion topics will include subscribing for emergency alerts, fire safety, what to pack in your “go-bag,” and additional exercises to enhance preparedness. There are two opportunities to participate in the classes:

- Thursday, February 20
 - Time: 6:00 to 7:00 p.m.
 - Location: The Wave (4201 Central Parkway, Dublin)
 - Register here
- Thursday, February 27
 - Time: 6:00 to 7:00 p.m.
 - Location: Shannon Community Center (11600 Shannon Avenue, Dublin)

If you currently have an adult passport which is expired, or will expire within the year, you can renew your passport online at Travel.State.gov. If you have a minor that is over 16, they are eligible for an adult passport but require an in-person appointment.

For urgent travel to a foreign country within 14 calendar days or in need of a foreign visa within 28 calendar days, you can visit the US Department of State website at Travel.State.gov.

LUNAR NEW YEAR CELEBRATION

A Musical Celebration: Year of the Golden Snake

Celebrate the Year of the Golden Snake at the Dublin Senior Center (7600 Amador Valley Boulevard) this Sunday, February 2. Enjoy a vibrant program featuring a Lion Dance, Chinese folk dances, and musical performances blending Western and traditional Chinese styles, and admission is free. Special guests include the Rachel Violin Studio. Organized with the North America Youth Chinese Orchestra, Dublin Rotary Club, and Breaking BEARiers Youth Leadership Club, this event promises an unforgettable start to the Lunar New Year.

JUNIOR WARRIORS YOUTH BASKETBALL LEAGUE

Sportsmanship Matters

The Junior Warriors Youth Basketball League is dedicated to promoting sportsmanship as a core value. The program encourages players, coaches, and parents to embody this spirit, recognizing those who consistently demonstrate sportsmanship in our league. One standout example is Kylie Badarello, a player in our 2nd/3rd grade girls' Junior Warriors League. During a recent game, Kylie noticed an opponent struggling with an untied shoe. Without hesitation, she stepped in to help, tying the other player's shoe right in the midst of the action. This thoughtful gesture of kindness and sportsmanship captured the attention of everyone present, serving as a reminder of the true essence and importance of youth sports for our young athletes.

KIDS NIGHT OUT AT THE WAVE

Parents Enjoyed a Night Off While the Kids Played at The Wave

On Saturday, January 18, 70 registered participants had a fun evening with their friends at The Wave, while parents enjoyed a night out on the town. Kids Night Out included a supervised evening with a pizza dinner, arts and crafts, games, and swimming, beginning at 5:00 p.m.

DUBLIN BENEFIT CONCERT AND YOUTH ENTREPRENEUR FAIR APPLICATIONS

The Youth Advisory Committee Showcases Talent and Entrepreneurs

Do you have a special talent you'd like to share with the community? Join us for a family-friendly event that showcases inter-generational talent to raise funds for the City's Don Biddle Scholarship program. Applications to perform are available online at Dublin Benefit Concert Website.

Youth Entrepreneur Fair

We're also seeking youth vendors for the Youth Entrepreneur Fair. This exciting event celebrates creativity, innovation, and young entrepreneurship by providing a platform for youth to showcase and sell their products or services. Spaces are limited, so don't wait—visit the Youth Entrepreneur Fair website.

The deadline for applying is Sunday, March 2 for both the Benefit Concert and Youth Entrepreneur Fair. Selected performers and vendors will receive an email on Friday, March 14.

NEW CAMP PARKS EXHIBIT

Communications During World War II

Visit the Dublin Camp Parks Military History Center through January 2026 to see a new exhibit, Communications During World War II. Explore soldiers' heartfelt wartime communications with a special focus on V-Mail (short for "Victory mail," a postal system put into place during the war to reduce the space needed to transport mail). View personal letters and photographs of soldiers stationed in the Philippines and France. The exhibit also includes stamps, postcards, books, notes, drawings, and sketches, offering a glimpse into how soldiers stayed connected with their loved ones during the war.

The history center is located in Building 275, just outside the Main Gate checkpoint at Parks Reserve Forces Training Area (Camp Parks).
