NEW BUSINESS

Youth Advisory Committee and Student Representative to the Parks and Community Services Commission Applications for the 2014-2015 Term

Staff provided information on the application process for the 2014-2015 Youth Advisory Committee and Student Representative to the Parks and Community Services Commission. Staff reminded the Youth Advisory Committee Members that the deadline to apply is April 30, 2014 by 5:00 PM. Staff provided applications for Committee Members.

Youth Advisory Committee 2013-2014 Annual Report

Staff provided information to Youth Advisory Committee Members regarding the annual report on the accomplishments of the Youth Advisory Committee to the Parks and Community Services Commission and City Council. Chairperson Rastogi and Vice-Chairperson Angie Wang were scheduled to present the power point presentation to the Committee for their review. Chairperson Rastogi was absent from the meeting so the preview did not occur. Even though the power point was previewed, the Youth Advisory Committee Members present are confident that CM's Rastogi and Wang will do an outstanding job presenting the annual report to Parks and Community Services Commission and City Council in May and June.

OTHER BUSINESS

Mary Ayers representing the Dublin Library provided information on the movie "Girl Rising." "Girl Rising" is a documentary revealing nine girls' courageous perseverance through obstacles including educational and gender inequality, and human trafficking. There will be a free screening of the movie on May 21, 2014 at 7:00 PM.

Staff stated that the Dublin Community Car Show will be held Saturday May 3, 2014, at the Dublin Heritage Park and Museum at 10:00 AM. Staff encouraged all Youth Advisory Committee Members to attend.

Staff provided an overview of "Eggstravaganza" event which was held April 19, 2014, at Emerald Glen Park. Staff Member Siu stated that over 500 children participated in the event. There were jump houses, arts and crafts, petting zoo and pictures with Peter Rabbit.

Staff provided an overview of the Youth Benefit Concert which took place on April 13, 2014, at the Shannon Community Center. Seven youth performers provided a wonderful concert. Over 50 were in attendance. Proceeds from the concert benefitted the Dublin Youth Fee Assistance program.

CM Brunckhorst stated that a "Battle of the Bands" event is scheduled to be held at Dublin High School on May 23, 2014. Proceeds from the event will benefit the Dublin High School music program.
